Beloved Partners and Friends,

The more that I think about the government and order of God the more I realize how far removed most believers are from God's least requirements. God's order is HIS GOVERNMENT in operation throughout the universe. Without God's order there will never be true power and authority or blessing and prosperity and more importantly, there will never be fellowship with the Lord. Fellowship may be termed, "fellows sailing in harmony in the same ship with Christ at the helm." "Who shall ascend into the holy hill of the Lord" or "who shall stand in his holy place?" He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully." The reason there is so much confusion amongst Christians and so much that simply does not work is because we are completely out of God's DIVINE ORDER. When believers come back under God's governmental order they will experience personal revival and all of the blessings: physical, material, emotional and spiritual that will automatically accompany His order. To remain outside of God's order by our stubborn unyielding will is to reap disorder, confusion and chaos in our lives and relationships. Let us take, for instance, the whole matter of women in marriage. The fallen Eve nature in every woman is to usurp authority over the man. This is the very nature of fallen woman and has nothing at all to do with male chauvinism a theory propagated by liberal humanism. This usurpation of authority by women or role reversal creates what is commonly though incorrectly called the "Jezebel spirit." The problem, however, is not the Jezebel nature of a woman but the willing weakness of Ahab. Without an Ahab, there would not have been a controlling Jezebel. God's order is that the man is HEAD in his marriage. His failure to be head allows Jezebel to rise up. The

GOD'S ORDER

moment that the woman is permitted to rise up and control, she DESPISES the man deep down in the recesses of her life. That Ahab has forced the woman into an unnatural position; one not ordained of God for women cannot be denied. For his part, the pathetic Ahab has been emasculated and does what is naturally easiest for the masculine gender to do, namely, withdraw into isolation and silence and hide behind television, the bar with male friends, newspapers, church and today, pornography. All the while, Ahab hates himself because he is gutless and allows his position and authority to be usurped by his wife. In hating himself, he breeds anger deep within and resentment that he takes out on whoever is the weakest in his way. Such abusive violation of God's order creates disharmony and even war. There can never be REST under such circumstances and given this condition for years and years it takes an enormous toll on health, emotional stability and general well being of all concerned. The Lord cannot possibly bless under such circumstances until right order is established or restored. As soon as the man becomes head as ordained by the Lord, the woman will submit and in this submission there will be true love, respect and devotion, and, all the blessings of the Lord will flow. The emotional, mental, spiritual and physical needs of the woman will AUTOMATICALLY BE PROVIDED and there will be harmony. Now, this principle operates in every area of our lives and in every society. Our failure to submit to one another and to those who the Lord has given to rule is a violation of God's order. Under such circumstances, we will never be at PEACE and REST and we will always experience war. I marvel when believers tell me that the Lord is not blessing them or that they do not hear the voice of the Lord or that there is no joy in their lives. Sadly, very few believers have real joy because they spend their time in religious pursuits to impress men and God. I have seen over and over that when believers come under the true governmental order of God they are, for the first time in their lives really able to hear his voice. This means that most other times that they claim to have heard the Lord it must have been their own imagination, the voices of men or the voice of the enemy. The Lord cannot provide or bless or prosper anyone outside his order. This means that much of what is claimed as the provision or blessing of the Lord must needs be gain through the manipulation of men. If people are actually living a lie because of pretence they are completely out of order with the Lord. The order of God does not mean dictatorship and control. Where these qualities exist, there is fear. The order of the Lord means submission to his will and principles because it ought to be a delight to please the Lord. Jesus said, "I delight to do thy will, O Lord." When I am truly in love with the Lord, it is not a burden to obey him first and foremost because it pleases him and secondly because it is His order. There is security, freedom, peace, joy, victory and REST in submitting to God's governmental order. Then there is also His authority and power that the Lord gives to those who walk in his order. This is precisely what Jesus was talking about when he declared, "Blessed are the meek for they shall inherit the earth." If anyone knew the governmental order of the Lord, he was Paul the apostle. If anyone lived a persecuted life, he was Paul. If any man ever desired to know the Lord, Paul did. Outside of Christ, perhaps no man ever gave up so much to gain even more than did Paul who knew how to submit and follow God's governmental order. Paul prospered his whole Christian life even when he was being flogged. He truly died to live and lost to gain and counted all the riches of this world as dung for the "Excellency of the knowledge of Christ." If you as an individual are out of order with God and with men, you cannot possibly prosper and be at rest. It is God's desire for His people to come under submission to His divine order and authority because it is right and because the Lord longs to bless his people and cannot until we obey what he has ordained for man, GOVERNMENTAL ORDER.

NOTHING TO LOSE BUT A FEW PRICKS

Keep a syringe or needle in your home to do this... It's amazing and an unconventional way of recovering from stroke. Read it through as it can help somebody one day. My father was paralyzed and later died from the result of a stroke. I wish I knew about this first aid before. When a stroke strikes, the capillaries in the brain will gradually burst. No matter where the victim is, do not move them. If moved, the capillaries can burst. Help the victim to sit up where they are. If you have a syringe that would be the best. Otherwise, a sewing needle or a straight pin will do.

1. Place the needle/pin over fire to sterilize it and then use it to prick the tip of all10 fingers.
2. There are no specific acupuncture points, just prick about a mm from the fingernail.
3. Prick till blood comes out.
4. If blood does not start to drip, then squeeze with your fingers.
5. When all 10 digits is bleeding, wait a few minutes then the victim will regain consciousness.
6. If the victim's mouth is crooked pull on his ears until they are red.
7. Prick each earlobe twice until two drops of blood come from each earlobe. After a few minutes the victim should regain consciousness. When the victim regains his normal state without any abnormal symptoms take him to the hospital. If he was taken too soon, the bumpy trip will cause all the capillaries in his brain to burst. I learned about letting blood from a Chinese traditional doctor, Ha Bu Ting, who lives in Sun Juke. Furthermore, I have had practical experience with it so I know this method is 100% effective. In 1979, I was teaching in Fung Gaap College in Tai Chig one afternoon when another teacher came running to my classroom and said that the supervisor had collapsed. I immediately went to the 3rd floor. When I saw our supervisor, Mr. Chen Fu Tien, his color was off, his speech was slurred, his mouth was crooked - all the symptoms of a stroke. I immediately asked one of the practicum students to go to the pharmacy outside the school to buy a syringe, which I used to prick Mr. Chen's 10 finger tips. When all 10 fingers were bleeding (each with a pea-sized drop of blood), after a few minutes, Mr. Chen's face regained its color and his eyes were normal but his mouth was still crooked so I pulled on his ears to fill them with blood. When his ears became red, I pricked his right earlobe twice to let out two drops of blood. When both earlobes had two drops of blood each, a miracle happened. Within 3-5 minutes the shape of his mouth returned to normal and his speech became clear. We let him rest for a while and gave him a cup of hot tea, then we helped him go down the stairs, drove him to Wei Wah Hospital. He rested one night and was released the next day to return to school to teach. Everything worked normally. There were no after effects. On the other hand, the usual stroke victim usually suffers irreparable bursting of the brain capillaries on the way to the hospital. As a result, these victims never recover. Therefore, stroke is the second cause of death. The lucky ones will stay alive but can remain paralyzed for life. It is such a horrible thing to happen in ones life. If we can all remember this blood letting method and start the life saving process immediately, in a short time, the victim will be revived and regain 100% normality.

CONTAINER WAREHOUSING

We have been able to obtain warehousing for the containers going to Africa. Thanks so much to Armin and Catherine Hunger in Toledo and the staff at I.C. Fluid Power who are willing to store our items until we have a container full. In future please send items for the container to the following:

 Shekinah Ministries,
 c/o I.C. Fluid Power, Attention Jordan,
 63 Dixie Hwy, Rossford OH 43460
 (419) 661-8811 ext 3006.

We are needing items for our apartments for the Bible School as well as clothing for the elderly. We will have an article in the April newsletter regarding the elderly in Malawi.

Please make sure that all clothing is clean and mended. Make sure that items for the apartments are all in working order and are not broken, stained, chipped. Bedding, furnishings, cooking utensils are all going to be needed. Thank you so much for all your past efforts in sending these containers. We would like to be able to fill one and send it by September.

CALIBER OF KALIBU BIBLE SCHOOL STUDENTS

I know it's been a long time since my last update, I guess you could say that after being here for more than a year time is starting to really fly by. So much has happened since my last email I'm not sure where to begin. It's almost impossible to try to describe the spiritual depth of the hard core teaching we get in class these days so maybe I'll stick to telling you about some of the mission trips I've been on recently during the school breaks. In Dec I spent a month in Mozambique with some of our missionary's there. They have been there for over ten years and my objective for going was simply to minister and serve them in whatever way I could. They were most grateful for my help and put me right to work doing a lot of mechanic work on their broken down vehicles and helping out in the sawmill that they run to help support the work there. I just got back from a two week trip up through northern Malawi. From Blantyre we took a twelve hour bus ride to a town called Mzuzu. There we rented a car and continued north, close to the Tanzanian border and then finally off road through the mud and bush. It's amazing just how much mud a car can go through, but oh how I longed for my 4x4 "Chevy" truck. There were 4 of us in our team and God really gave us unity and anointing for the ministry that we did. At one of the first churches we visited the people were especially hungry and hung on to every word we spoke. In one of the services, I taught on the law of binding and loosing in relationships and how that if our relationships here on earth are bound up with bitterness and unforgiveness that it will also bind our relationship in heaven with God. As I spoke a Holy Spirit conviction fell and many people repented before God right there, but I didn't know the full impact it had until later that night when I awoke to the sound of crying and weeping and loud prayer. Thinking the villagers were up to their old religious nonsense I get up and went outside ready to give a stern rebuke. They like to have these all night services that are more like funeral services than anything else. But when I got out there I found about a dozen of the church leaders standing in a circle and with the help of my translator I found out that they were repenting to each other for the bitterness and strife that had been between them; thus loosing their relationships on earth and setting themselves free in their relationship with God. It's humbling to see how fast these people repent when they hear the truth, and as we went on we found the same hunger and openness almost everywhere we went. The fields are truly white unto harvest!! God continues to take me on an incredible journey with him, taking me deeper into his love as he leads me through one death process after another. You know, sometimes I don't think we Americans know what it is to die to self. It's more than just abstaining from immorality or self indulgency. Sometimes it means to completely and utterly surrender your will to God even when he asks you to give up what's dearest and closest to your heart. But what I'm finding out is that God will never ask me to give up anything he won't give back. It might not look the same as I thought it should, but he will give it back many times over and above what I even wanted in the first place. Anything or anyone in your life that you are holding on to too tightly or too closely, God will ask us to give up like he did with Abraham. God asked him to give up what was closest and most precious to his heart, to test his love and obedience and to see where his heart really was. So many times we look at the blessings in our life as being our inheritance and get so caught up in the blessings that we miss the Blessor. How many times does God have to take away the blessings so that we start seeking his face again? God made it very clear to Abraham when he said, "I am your Shield and EXCEEDING GREAT REWARD", not all your herds or flocks, not all your servants, not all your land, or even your son, but ME! "I AM" your reward. When we begin to live in God's presence and start to feel his intense love for us and this is truly the greatest reward in life. (Ed note. This is the school which will teach and lunch the international students to all corners of the earth. This young man is one of our US students)
