Beloved Partners & Friends

Having just completed a whirlwind tour in USA for some five weeks, I was shocked at the total lack of dynamic living faith that I found amidst most believers and therefore, churches. There were several very clear messages that the Holy Spirit impressed upon us as we travelled. There is a distinct lack of both passion and purpose amongst believers at all levels. This is simply because we are not fully in love with Jesus and more consumed with the issues of this life and world. The Lord kept enforcing that it is time to make DISCIPLES as HE commanded. The making of a disciple means an investment of my life into somebody else's life and this demands total commitment. In true essence, Jesus took twelve men and invested his entire ministry life into their own lives. One was a failure and the other eleven did not appear to be exceptionally successful. In the world of today, this would be termed FAILURE. Yet, with the empowerment of the dynamic Holy Spirit these men turned the world upside down. As church leadership, we can never expect our sheep to rise above who we are. If I am not a man of prayer, then neither can I expect the flock to pray. If I am not a man of the Word, neither shall his sheep love the word. If I am passionless so shall the sheep be passionless. The church has become "BUSINESS AS USUAL" for most leaders and therefore their people. We know exactly what we will get every Sunday morning in most churches. True worship is almost non-existent and it seems that we simply need to get back to basics again. Young people are tired of a gimmicky church that appears more hypocritical than real. We all really know the problems and yet seem helpless to change. What is needed is to stop the wheel spinning round and round and make some radical decisions. Jeremiah cried out, "Woe to you shepherds..." "Woe to you prophets..." All the woes of the leadership in the day of Jeremiah might easily be attributed to the leadership in this day. Who is to blame, the prophets and shepherds or the people? The "people love it so" because they are following the example of leaders. It requires enormous energy, effort and time to switch tracks without a derailment but this certainly needs to be done. We need to shelve some of our projects saving some money in the process and invest more time into quality fellowship with the Lord until He pours Himself into us again.

I conducted a youth service in one of the churches where I was ministering. The youth were anywhere from fourteen to twenty five. What impressed me the entire time I was ministering was that each of over one hundred youth present were hanging on every word I was speaking and I was not telling them enthralling war stories from Africa. I was preaching the dynamic Word with passion. We all think that miracles, healings and signs will endorse our ministries and put us on the road to fame. Signs and wonders should only be the expression of the residency of Christ within and not an end in itself. Jesus accused the multitude of being so fickle that they did not even come for the miracles but to eat free bread. What is needed is a new love for passionate preaching of His Word and that can only come from "a fire shut up in my bones, a fire that cannot be quenched." We are missing the focus of Christ, Christ, Christ and dwelling on the side shows in the hope that we might gather the crowds and excite them with ENTERTAINMENT. There is no substitute in this world and life to the solid, dynamic, life-empowered preaching of His Word. Paul's declaration, "My preaching was not with the enticing words of man's wisdom but in the demonstration of the Spirit and of power" proves the point. The church really does need to return to the simplicity of the Gospel service.

Believers at all levels need to radically rethink our living testimony. We are the salt of the earth, the city set on a hill, the light of the world. With our "business as usual" mentality we have alienated the world with our super religious demonstrations of death. We need to stop trying to get people back to church but rather take church to where people are. It is ludicrous that we spend Sundays locked up in our 'holy huddle' isolated from the people we should be reaching and the only day we can reach them is Sunday. Radical change takes big, bold moves of ice-pack breaking proportions but if we are going to win the world we have to get back to basics and that is communicating with Christ until He floods us with His presence. The task is quite simple thereafter: simply ask of the Lord to show you someone who will be future fruit for His GLORY and start to work on them WITHOUT BIBLE BASHING them. We should be cultivating a new disciple each and every year and as we do, we will grow ourselves. There is a vast world waiting to be won to Christ. This will only be achieved when we are lost in reckless passion and abandon to the Christ who gave His all for me.

TESTIMONIES FROM U.S. TOUR

I was very concerned about the number of people that would show up to the meetings and very concerned about the amount of money that would come in as I did not want your ministry to get a small amount. A few years ago, I would have been able to make up the difference, but at this point I have a lot of debt every month and I was not able to do that. Anyway, I was sweating and worrying until I looked at the offering on Friday night. Someone gave 1,000.00. Thank God! I was so relieved.

I know that the people that were there were greatly changed. Several people said that the meetings changed their lives. I was a bit concerned that more people did not show up but I believe that the right people were there. Michael was preaching in his usual challenging, life changing style and it only takes one offended person to complain and take others with them. I was pleasantly surprised that the people took correction so well. It is not the norm. I can see that we are changing and our prayer is Revival. It is our only hope. RG

I had to write and tell you about a wonderful testimony from the meetings. Diane S. came to the meeting on Friday night and wanted her 20 year old son to come but he refused. It was during the worship and she told Michael that he would not come so Michael said that he would pray. Well, about twenty minutes later he showed up. He has been suffering from Schizophrenia for two years. It had gotten very bad just lately and he had not been able to sleep. He would hear voices telling him to kill people and kill himself.

Michael prayed for him at the meeting and since then he has been totally better and able to sleep. The voices would keep him awake all night. Praise God! Her comment was, "What kind of a man is he that he can pray and get instant results."

Many people have said that the meetings were life changing for them and they can't wait to have him back next year.

Thanks you so much from the bottom of our hearts for coming. I know that many lives were changed and we will not (we refuse) to be the same. Your teachings have changed my life and the lives of many other who attended the meetings.

My heart is for Africa and I will pray for your ministry there until I can be there in person. Thank you again and keep on—the best years are yet to come.

SUDAN

DEAR PASTOR

We had an awesome time in Sudan. I so enjoyed meeting the graduates and getting to know them. I was pleasantly surprised to see their fire and passion for the things of God and how unselfish they were with both their time and money, but I was even more surprised when we had intercession! Those men were really taught how to pray!!! We just left Yei this morning and we are now back in Uganda. I hope and pray you are having a wonderful time in the States. I'm looking forward to being back in Malawi and cooler weather. [laughs] See you soon. With Love,

Roland. (Bible student from IA)

Dear Pastor.

A week of travelling has made my backside almost numb, but that is nothing compared the possibility of seeing so many countries and finally reaching our destination here in Sudan. I'm sitting here in one of the classes in the old Kalibu compound with Pastor Chemir James. We just had the second meeting with the graduates and I promised to help speed-type a message for you about all that has happened here since we met these brothers.

It has been great to meet these men and see the place (now many things in your book have become real). Even though the former school area is now in a lousy condition, I can imagine the beauty that was here before. The hearts of these brothers are also a delight - they love God and you a lot.

The excitement and the testimonies of the graduates filled the classroom number 1. 17 former students met each other in joyful laughter with a lot of hugging. Some of this bunch are now working in the military, in the government, some as MP's - many have also established churches and some of those who are in the military are working as chaplains. People have been saved through these brothers, been delivered and healed. After hearing about our arrival to Sudan, all of them were excited and wanted to see pastor Navaya after all these years. And of course there have been a lot of enquiries about you, Pastor Roz, Pastor Paisley and Pastor Frank. It seems that you've really stayed in their hearts.

The graduates have been longing and waiting for the day when they'll see their father again. From the very beginning of our first meeting, they shared their willingness and enthusiasm to see the ministry of Kalibu re-established and opened again in this country. Other people have also expressed serious needs for continuing the kind of a program that Kalibu was running here. The acknowledgement of the impact of the ministry concerning the peace was also brought up. So they decided to start working on the issue straight away by meeting the county authorities,

Today we've met with the deputy and the executive directors of Yei river-county. Their message was that the security in the area is ok and we are free to move around southern Sudan. They also told us that the Kalibu properties (those in the containers) have been stored by the county and will be returned. Their message was that we are welcome back. (Ari Finland)

These are orphans which our Sudanese graduates take care of. They are 112 kids place where they are is 2½ Kilometer from Yei a place called Sanja Sili.

Some of the graduates that came in from all over Southern Sudan for meetings and to officially invite Shekinah/Kalibu back to open a center and Bible School.

UPDATES

Bwana and I had a wonderful time traveling criss-cross over the U.S. It was great to see our friends and to make new acquaintances. We were sorry that we did not have more time to spend with people but the itinerary was so full we went from one meeting to the next, one city to the next. Our thanks to all who hosted us, took us out for meals, drove us around, picked us up and dropped us off at airports. Thanks for coming to the meetings and we pray that you were supremely blessed and challenged. We know that we were.

Please do not forget to make a note on you calendars, on your computers and block out the dates in August for the convention we are going to have in the Chicago area. We believe that we have found an hotel near the airport. Bwana will not be itinerating in the U.S. next year. He will be here just for the conference—August 17th - 20th.

It would be really great if you would email me if you already know that you want to attend so that we make sure there is a conference hall large enough.

We plan to hold a banquet on the Friday night of the conference.

Make sure you come and hear from our leadership from all the countries YOU have invested in over the years.
